Week: May 11-15

Source: None

Materials: Google Form, Internet

MPG/Big Idea:

MPG4: Make value judgments about music

State Standard:

9.4

Enduring Understandings:

4. Music is a lifelong avocation that requires personal choices and critical response

Essential Questions:

4. What makes good music good?

Knowledge:

1. Music is a personal choice

Skills:

Aesthetic Response

4. Identify criteria for selecting music for personal use that are based on knowledge, insight and experience rather than preconception, prejudice and social pressure

Procedure:

This week instead of a regular music lesson, you will be scheduling your middle school music class. Please read all of the directions VERY CAREFULLY.

Soon you will be taking the big step up to middle school life. Many exciting opportunities for music classes will be available to you.

In sixth grade, you have the option to select from the following choices: a. Band, b. Beginning Band, c. Chorus, d. Orchestra, e. Beginning Orchestra or f. General Music (You Must Choose One).

Here are three things that you need to know about your selection for your schedule next year.

1. You will schedule your music class using the link at the bottom of this letter which will take you to a Google Form. Please follow the directions on the form carefully.

2. All music classes (including band, chorus, and orchestra) are scheduled. You will not miss any classes because you are in a performing group.

3.If you are currently taking band lessons with Mr. Turek, you should select band. If you are currently taking orchestra lessons with Mr. Conkle, you should select orchestra.

4. Every student must be scheduled into one of the classes on the form.

5. Before you complete the form, discuss your decision with an adult.
